Is Supportive Living Right for Me?

Supportive Living units are in demand at Kiwanis Village Nanaimo. Applicants will be placed on a waitlist in the order that applications are received.

Please answer the following questions:

1. I am able to manage my day-to-day activities, including:

- Personal shopping..... YES/NO
- Making appointments and arranging transportation..... YES/NO
- Accessing help and support as needed from family, friends, and others..... YES/NO
- Taking care of other needs (e.g. personal care, meal preparation)..... YES/NO
- Navigating independently a distance of 100m, to and from the dining room, activities, and building amenities (e.g. laundry rooms) YES/NO

2. I am confident making safety decisions (e.g. accessing help as needed, using a personal emergency response device, following an emergency safety plan)..... YES/NO

If you answered NO to any of the above questions, please contact us at 250-740-2817 for more information and to determine whether Supportive Living is suitable for you. We can also provide information about the other housing options offered at Kiwanis Village. We are a Campus of Care with a variety of levels of housing, including those that provide care services.

Please note that if a Supportive Living resident’s health declines or they develop care needs that are greater than can be accommodated in an independent setting, a move to a more appropriate level of housing will be required.
